India's participation in G-7 Meeting

†2532. SHRI ABU ASIM AZMI: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether G-7 countries invited India to the meeting held in the month of February;

(b) if so, whether India participated in the meeting and the long term benefits involved therein; and

(c) the countries other than India which were invited to this meeting and the attitude of G-7 countries towards them?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI RAO INDERJIT SINGH): (a) At the invitation of the Chancellor for Exchequer of the United Kingdom, Finance Minister, Shri P. Chidambaram attended a breakfast meeting with G-7 Finance Ministers on February 5, 2005. The Summit meeting of Heads of State/Government of G-7 countries will, however, take place on July 6-8, 2005 in Scotland, UK.

(b) and (c) There was no formal agenda. The discussions focused around challenges and opportunities of globalization. Finance Minister briefed others on Indian economy and discussed various issues relating to the international economic situation, including the impact of rising international oil prices. Other countries invited to the meeting were Brazil, South Africa and China.
